Donna has conducted Seduction Redefined workshops, teaching women to give themselves permission to initiate courtship, build relationship and create partnership. Over eighty years old and in partnership with Paul, she feels successful, beautiful and sensual.

Paul Reffell, a world traveler and an English transplant to Northern California, is an Evolutionary Behaviorist activist who writes poetry, fiction, and non-fiction on Nature and human nature. He has performed his works on stage and on radio. He can also fix just about anything!

Since becoming partners and creative collaborators, Donna & Paul have worked together on many projects, including Baring Witness. They have co-written a book and personality profiling system that uses physical genetic indicators of left and right brain traits, called BrainLines, which can be seen at www.BrainLines.org. They have co-created interactive public art installations, Wargasm and ProDegradation, and this book, Seduction Redefined.

At present they are co-producing a feature-length documentary film combining Baring Witness and Seduction Redefined (www.BaringWitnessFilm.org). As part of their Evolutionary Revolution, they created the Dolley Madison Partnership Award (more information at www.DolleyMadisonPartnershipAward.org)
